- Should the military only deal with security?
Or does it also have moral and ethical responsibility toward the world?
- When yes? When no? Where do you draw the line?
- What values stand behind the decision to assist other countries?
- Does this contribute to or endanger the status of the IDF and the state? What is important for the world to know?
- Do you think there is a difference between the IDF as a fighting force and the IDF as a life-saving force?
- How would you convey the message that the IDF comes to help, not to fight?
- Should we assist enemy states in humanitarian emergencies?
